You will enjoy driving it for a long time without any faults. The most recent is a priority in this new instrument cluster. Its true that in design and quality, you can be glad to pay a premium to buy this BMW navigation DVD V3 sat nav system, but it certainly doesnt cost a fortune or anything close to it. True, the display isnt so big and lacks colour changes that its predecessor has, but its not inferior to any other sat nav system you have used before. If you cant afford the BMW DLC or are not so keen on a dedicated infotainment system, then its not such a bad thing. Its not the best infotainment system on the market, but is in fact at par in terms of quality and functionality. Its not going to break the bank either, but is still of course a bit expensive. If youre in the market for a good sat nav system for your new BMW then its just a case of looking at the individual components of the system and seeing what will best suit your requirements. 2013 BMW Navigation DVD Road Map Europe HIGH MK4 With SpeedCameras. - I am a Mk4 high 20 upgrade free, V32 update CD satnav 2015 map display is antialiased.
